2. [redacted] Mr. Thomas Ehrlich, Special Assistant to the Legal Adviser of State Department, called regarding our note to Assistant Secretary Dutton concerning the item raised by Representative Frances Bolton at the Director's last appearance before the House Foreign Affairs Committee. (This had to do with the suppression of Communist propaganda in the U.S.) Ehrlich asked if we had any other details. I indicated we did not but I assumed Mrs. Bolton was referring to the action taken on the so-called Cunningham amendment to the employee's pay bill. I later discussed this with Frank Schupp, of the Committee staff, who also felt that this was what Mrs. Bolton had in mind. Schupp suggested that someone, perhaps [redacted] might brief Mrs. Bolton on this subject since any detailed discussion would involve sensitive material. This suggestion was passed on to Ehrlich.

3. [redacted] Talked with Frank Schupp regarding a request from a Stamford, Connecticut attorney, Mr. Morgan P. Ames, for a "certified copy" of the Director's statement which was released by the Foreign Affairs Committee. Schupp informed me that the Committee had received a similar request, [redacted]
